- Venue: Valentine Sports Park.

Please advise William Tan at williamt@footballnsw.com.au of the names and coaching positions of your attendees by close of business Thursday 13th June. You will receive more information regarding presentation content and timings shortly.

5. ASC REFUGEE YOUTH SPORTS SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

The Community Relations Commission recognises that participation in sport is an excellent way for young people to engage positively with their local communities, build confidence and a sense of belonging, and promote mutual respect and understanding in the wider community. The Refugee Youth Sports Sponsorship Program was established by the Community Relations Commission to enable young people of refugee background living in NSW to participate in sports where financial disadvantage may otherwise preclude them.

Sponsorship of up to $500 per player is available to cover costs associated with playing team sports, including registration and game fees, uniforms, and playing equipment.
