ROUND 18 UPDATE

Last week we welcomed Bayswater to Mulgrave Reserve for the final round of 2014. A lot hinged on the senior result, and fortunately for our club we made it through.

The Under 19s kicked the "dew off the grass" in near perfect playing conditions, and tuned themselves up for finals with a thirty goal win, and minor premiers. Best players were: Perry Cole, Jacob Leece, Ben Chung, Levi De Niese- McGregor, Christian Acquaro and Karan Khusu. We had many multiple goal kickers including Nathan Prior and Ben Chung (5 each), Alex Liolios and Tom McGowan (4 each). Good luck this week in the second semi final

The reserves went down to Bayswater by 32 points, but the result could have been a bit closer with better conversion (we kicked 7 goals 20 points). Best players were: Pat McKaige, Jarrod Marolla, Jayden Kelaart, Alex Nichol and Matt Hesketh.

Once again the senior team got out of the blocks kicking into the wind and leading by 3 goals at quarter time. We then went to sleep and at one stage in the third quarter were 40 points down. We went to the last break 32 points in arrears. The players were encouraged to take the game on and so they did....David Waser kicked three goals in as many minutes, and from there on it was history, we had an 11 goal last quarter and ran out winners by 35 points, booking a place in the first semi final. Best players were: David Eddy, Jack Roper, Tom Gladman, Nuru Jammeh, Adam Booth and Brandon Fredericks. Adam Booth kicked five majors. Good luck to the boys in this week's final.

Our next club event is our Presentation Night on AFL Grand Final Eve at the Mulgrave Country Club
