NEWSLETTER

23rd June 2016

It is "Pride of the Lions Day" this Saturday, when we take on Doncaster East in both seniors and reserves at home. The under 19s have a bye. After the game for $20 each you can have a magnificent melt in your mouth roast courtesy of the King of Roasts

Last week the seniors put together another 100 minutes of great football and ran out 19 point winners under wet, cold and slippery conditions. We controlled the game for most of the day through great ball usage and straight kicking, although Croydon hit the front early in the last, but we bounced back and steadied. Best players were Cohen Howell, Dean Siakoulis and Perry Cole. The win now places us in fifth position only percentage out of the four.

The reserves played arguably their best game for the year and controlled the game all day, to run out 24 point winners, Sam Kenny played a great game, as did Ian McLennan and Pat McKaige.

The under 19s gave away a 7 goal start in the first quarter, then matched it with a very strong Croydon side for the rest of the game, to go down by 48 points, best were Jordan Cochrane, Brayden James and Jack Davidson.

Upcoming functions are the fantastic $5K draw on July 9th, and the Cocktail is being held on July 30th at the Wheelers Hill Hotel. The next Lion Pride lunch is on August 6th for the home game against Mooroolbark, and the Business Network lunch is on Friday 26th August.

We are pleased to announce Danny Frawley as our special guest, the day will be hosted by Bruce Eva, and also feature comedian Chris Bennett. Tickets only $125 per head all inclusive, including a great Greek Banquet to satisfy your hunger.

When buying goods or services, consult our sponsor list for great value and tell them you are a Mully member. Support our sponsors and they will continue to support us
